—The Roachton school was highly entertained last Friday afternoon by Prof. Wooden of Perryburg in his "Chalk Talk" lecture. Prof. Wooden is an artist of rare ability and his entertainment was greatly enjoyed by pupils and visitors of the school. While his work shows many humorous features, it also pictures out the many evils of drink and tobacco. While he lectures he continues to draw pictures with lightning speed illustrating the different subjects as he proceeds. The pictures were presented to the pupils at the close of entertainment.

C.R. COMSTOCK & CO.

—Miss Nellie Taylor is spending two days this week at the home of Thomas Frusher and wife.

—Ira Kilgore of B. G. accidentally took two doses of chlorate of potash instead of salts and has been lying at the point of death since last Friday. Physicians from all parts of the country have been in attendance and it is hoped he may recover. His chances have been very slim but he is making a brave fight and hopes to win.

—Shoes for ladies at $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50 in good new spring styles that can't be beat for style and service at these prices. All good standard makes that have stood the test for years and they are better than ever. See them, at FULLER'S.

—Henry Hughes of B. G. was in town Monday and gave the JOURNAL a pleasant call. He was securing a few relics for the purpose of exhibiting them to members of the Kentucky Legislature before whom a committee of Wood county men will appear for the purpose of enlisting their interest in the effort to purchase the historic forts in this locality. Attorney Campbell of B. G. will make a speech to the Kentucky law makers and the delegation who accompany him will endeavor to bring them to see their duty in making an appropriation to help purchase the grounds.

—Low priced carpets. A few new patterns just put in stock that we bought cheap and will sell them accordingly. Ask to see them, at FULLER'S.

—John Gunder was in town Monday and made a strong protest because we had stated that he was troubled with rheumatism. He said he received letters from all parts of the country recommending various remedies for his trouble. That merely shows the value of newspaper advertising. He says he had almost recovered from his affliction but one of the recent cold nights he went out late to pump a pail of water and his boots froze to the well curb. He fears he would have never escaped but for the help of one of his family who came out with a kettle of hot water and melted him loose. When in town he bought two new saws with which he expected to saw a hole in the cold weather so he could get around on his farm to do his chores.

—The best physic. "Once tried and you will always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says William A. Girard, Pease, Vt. These Tablets are the most prompt, most pleasant and most reliable cathartic in use. For sale by Bowers & Comstock.

—The Ladies Aid society of the Evangelical church will hold their next social at the home of Rudolph Zingg and wife on Friday, afternoon and evening, March 4, 1904. Supper, 10 cents. All are welcome.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves' signature is on each box. 25c.

—Lost.—A small tan colored pocket book, containing five dollars, last Thursday, on Indiana avenue or in public school. Please return to the JOURNAL office and receive reward. 51a Mrs. J. G. HOFFMAN.

—Miss Anna Schaller of Roachton was in town Monday and gave the JOURNAL a subscription call. Her parents Lewis Schaller and wife, moved to Waterville last November and the young people have been keeping house on the farm. They will take up their home in Waterville the first of March at which time the tenant will take charge of the farm. Frank Schaller is taking a course in business college at Toledo.

Birds work for man from the first glimmer of light. Rocky Mountain Tea works for mankind both day and night. That's why it is famous the world over and over.

It will not let you turn over and take another snore. Bowers & Comstock.
